

American Airgun Field Target Association
US National Competition
Hosting Agreement

This agreement between the American Airgun Field Target Association, hereinafter referred to as AAFTA, and Aguadilla Field Target and Archery Club, hereinafter referred to as the Host, is conditional upon AAFTA awarding the hosting rights for the 2022 AAFTA US National Competition (the Event) to the above mentioned Host. The parties understand that this agreement is a condition precedent to acceptance by AAFTA of the Hosts application to sponsor the Event.

In further consideration of financial benefits to the Host which will accrue through match fees and remainder of any funds raised at the event, the Host and AAFTA agree to the following terms:

- 1.) AAFTA and the Host will agree on the dates for the event.
- 2.) Host Club will announce the date and open registration at least 6 months before the event date.
- 3.) Host Club must consult with AAFTA if it intends to limit entries to 120 or less and get AAFTA's consent before reducing the number below 120.
- 4.) Host Club will comply with current AAFTA rules and guidelines regarding course setup and rules.
- 5.) Host Club will have designated marshals who may shoot and recommends at least one non-shooting marshal to oversee the match.
- 6.) Host Club will offer marshal training.
- 7.) AAFTA will pay the Host club $500 to offset the cost of competition trophies, paid in a single installment within 30 days after awarding sponsorship rights to the Host club.
- 8.) AAFTA will organize donations for the annual auction, shipped to the host club location.
- 9.) AAFTA will donate 25% of the proceeds of the auction to the host club.

- 10.) The host club will track and report the total proceeds of the auction to AAFTA within 10 days of completion of the event.
- 11.) AAFTA will provide advice and counsel to the Host Club on request.
- 12.) Host Club will organize both a Nationals Rifle and Pistol Match at the event.

The undersigned agree that the above terms represent the full agreement between the parties and no other verbal or written communication will take precedence over this agreement.
