Remarks:

It was cold windy cold windy Connecticut morning, day after last of the year snowfall. Weather man forecasted pretty nice sunny day with upper 40's degree Fahrenheit, but that would come later during the day. This was first match of the season and we had nice turn out of 7 shooters and one new member observer show up to the match.

Thanks to hard work of Ron Dumond, course was set up and ready for us. It was wide open field with plenty of wind, which was especially felt during practice, making fingers numb after only a few shots. Few shooters sought refuge from cold wind between arm pits and other warm places to restore feelings for better accuracy.

Despite decent winds Brian managed to score 54/64 for match high in WFTF class and without wearing a harness. About half way thru the match it warmed up a little and sun came out, wind started to calm down and switch directions. Everyone had a lot of fun and helped out at the end.

Next match is in April, so hopefully will see everyone again.

Next FT match: 2019 April 21st Sunday
